

This miscellaneous text is in response to your letter dated March 13, 2009. You noted in your letter that there were a number of voided checks that appeared to never have been reported originally. The original disbursements were all under the $200 threshold, so that is why they didn't appear on previous reports.
